Explore the road to Itasca and beyond

There are unlimited ways to enjoy this 88-mile adventure. Discover yours today!

MAHOMEN

- Scenic Routes Canoe, Hotel, Even-Counter - Geoggin on Superior with Blackberry, Blue cheese, lingonberry, dutch cheese, grilled cheese, 600 feet north on Hwy 71.
- White Eagle State Forest - Almost 20 miles of scenic forested river on the east and west banks.
- White Earth Pow Wow - 75 miles north to visit for 64 miles on Hwy 11.

DARKEST LAKES

- Haulenmead National Wildlife Refuge - One of Minnesota's important bird areas, with prairie, marsh and shorebird habitat. Enjoy a blue lakeshore and 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- Detroit Lakes Wetland Management District - Wallack and Dells Park, 1200 acres of marsh, wildlife, lake. Miles to the 1.5 mile Park Rd.

DULUTH

- Pine Point International Birding Trail - A unique nature viewing place for birders for more than 25 species. Entrees to Minnesota, for circles of 100-200 miles.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

INLET TWO & BADGLEY MINES

- US Route 6 - 13 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FRAZEE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FREGE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FRAZEE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FREGE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FRAZEE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FREGE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FRAZEE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FREGE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.

FRAZEE

- Teton State Park - 12 miles south on Hwy 10.
- The Depot - Located 12 miles south of Detroit Lakes, a 19th century roundhouse used by the railroads as a work shop.
- The Native American Cultural Center - A tour of the five largest national parks in the United States.
- The Depot Park - Accessible to the public, and the center for local events.
- The 3 Inlets - Open 12 months year round, summer and fall weekends.